John G. Ondrick
Colonel, Infantry
Commanding

To Officers And Men Of Diehard:

With the publication of this address book, it is my strong hope that we will use it very often in the years to come You will be scattered over the entire country following your individual pursuits, and in so doing you will very probably lose contact with those whose friendship was born and made out of the bitter joys of battle. You officers and men have made this regiment one of the finest regiments in your country's history. There is no regiment superior to yours. Proudly have you lived. Nobly have you died. It would be tragic indeed if after our experiences with life and death we did not meet again except by chance. Therefore, it is my deep hope that this address book will assist us in perpetuating the friendships born and made in the 309th Infantry. Individuals may come and go but the regiment lives on. TO each and everyone of you my personal wishes for your happiness and success.

WE shall meet again!

John L. Hendrick
